

The questionnaire – Ann Widdecombe

Ann Widdecombe is a Conservative MP

Which verse means the most to you? We believe and therefore speak. Corinthians chap IV

Can you remember the date you became a Christian? Gradual process

What do you think the UK church is getting wrong? The CofE does not know what it thinks about anything!

Happy clappy, Taize or organ? Organ

What's your ideal Sunday? Long, long walk

Where do you go to get inspiration for your work? To the past

Favourite preacher Billy Graham

Favourite Christian soundbite? I can do no other

What do you remember about the people who nurtured you in the faith? The nuns at Bath convent

If you could ask Jesus one question, what would it be? Why don't you hurry up the second coming?

How do you imagine heaven? Harps and hallelujahs

How do you imagine hell? Flames

Which of the 10 commandments have you broken the most? The Fourth

Sum up the Gospel in 10 words or less. He came, he did not like what he saw, he conquered hearts (OK, 12 words)

What would your 11th commandment be? If thou canst not keep the foregoing, thou shalt at least try

What are you working on next? My fifth novel

E-mail, phone or face to face? Face to face

How would you answer Jesus: 'Who do you say that I am?' The son of the Living God of course!